My goal (page 3 of the online form)

Tell us about your goal by outlining what you want to achieve, the steps you've taken to get there, how this will benefit the community and how much funding you need. Any information you provide on this page will be saved after you press 'Save & continue'.

What is your goal?*
(100 characters,
including spaces)

To finish writing my second novel in the next 12 months and send it to my publisher.

What will an AMP
Tomorrow Fund
grant help you do?*

(2,000 characters,
including spaces)

This grant will help me achieve this goal by providing the support and time needed to focus on finishing my second novel. The grant will give me the freedom to focus on creating this book without the constant stress and financial strain that takes time and energy away from writing... etc

What have you already done to work towards your goal?*

(2,000 characters,
including spaces)

I completed a Bachelor of Creative Writing at Sandstone University in 2011. I set the goal of being published. In 2013, I won the Sydney Gold Standard Writing Award for my short story A Perfect World. I was then awarded a contract with Creative People Press and my first novel, Perfection, was released in October 2014.

Finishing my second book is an important milestone. I have already completed four chapters. I have a comprehensive plan set out for the manuscript, with project milestones. I aim to send the manuscript to my publisher by May 2017...etc

How will this benefit Australia?*

(2,000 characters,
including spaces)

Growing up with no siblings and a single parent in rural Australia, books helped me imagine a better life and provided characters I could relate to. I'm passionate about the ability of literature to enrich lives and provide solace and inspiration.

An AMP Tomorrow Fund grant will help me support the local publishing industry and inspire other writers. My second novel, which will be based on a young woman who creates a rich fantasy world to escape the harsh realities of her life, will connect with and inspire readers who perhaps, like me, didn't have the easiest start in life... etc

How much money do you need to achieve your goal?*

$ 22,000

Please provide a breakdown of expected costs*

(500 characters,
including spaces)

Rent	$12,000
Computer	$1,000
Printing/stationery/postage	$200
Books and research expenses	$800
Living expenses	$6,000
Attending Pen-It author seminar	$1,000
Editorial support	$1,000

My story (page 4 of the online form)

You are more than halfway there! In this section, please tell us about any accolades or funding you have already received. If you're active online, please share any links that will help us to learn more about you.

Have you been formally recognised (for example, with an award) for achievement in your field?*(2,000 characters, including spaces)

Yes  No

In 2007, I received the Western Sydney Prize for Creative Writing. In 2013, I won the Sydney Gold Standard Writing Award for my short story A Perfect World. My debut novel was called 'An imaginative triumph' by the Australian Review of Books.

Have you received funding towards your goal?*(2,000 characters, including spaces)

Yes  No

Yes. In 2015 I received a $1,000 grant from the Australian Women Writers Philanthropic Program.

What category does your goal fall under?*(Select up to two. You cannot tick both non-profit and small business)

The arts  Disability  Education
Environment  Health  Non-profit
Science  Small business  Social enterprise
Sport  Technology

Other, please specify

My references (page 5 of the online form)

Your references are people who know you well, see your determination and can support your bid to be an AMP Tomorrow Maker. You need to nominate two people and can only select one friend and only one family member at most. It's a good idea to ask their permission first. This is the last part of your application form. Once you press 'Submit' you won't be able to change your application, so take your time and read it before submitting.
